

ROUND 2: TRIVIA BUFF #1

MC Version - 1 point per correct answer

1 Who wrote the children's classic The House at Pooh Corner?

AA Milne

2 What marrow vegetable, harvested very young, is also called a courgette and its yellow flower is considered a great delicacy?

Zucchini

3 What does Jack climb to reach the giant's castle?

Beanstalk

4 What is analysed in genetic fingerprinting?

DNA

5 Whose batting average is the PO Box number in every Australian capital city for the ABC?

Donald Bradman

6 Which Dutch navigator discovered and named New Zealand?

Abel Tasman

7 And what name is given to an historical region of the Middle East flanked by the Nile, the Tigris and the Euphrates?

Fertile Crescent

8 Who wrote: "And I somehow rather fancy that I'd like to change with Clancy, Like to take a turn at droving where the seasons come and go"?

A B Paterson or Banjo Paterson

9 A coal miner turned professional, which Australian billiards player, in 1967, set a world record of a break of 137 without his opponent being permitted a shot?

Eddie Charlton

10 Orbiting the sun about every 75 years, which bright heavenly body orbits in the opposite direction to the planets and appears between Venus and Neptune?

Halley's Comet

11 In ballet what term means a slow dance?

Adagio

12 Who, along with Fleming and Chain, isolated penicillin?

Howard Florey

13 Angus Young was the lead guitarist of which Australian band?

ACDC

14 In a game of Backgammon how many counters does the white side begin the game with?

Fifteen

15 Taking its name from the saying 'Kith and Kin', in the ABC comedy show what is the name of the daughter?

Kim