

Candid Interviews with Australian Writers

Williamson

Murray-Smith

What I Wrote

In this series, ten award winning Australian playwrights talk candidly about their best known plays. Each writer reveals their writing process and discusses the themes and characters within the work.

The dynamic presenter, Dr Tess Brady, provides a critical commentary for the plays. The DVDs include short 'lesson starter' films on themes or on individual plays.

All the playwrights in this series are studied on the senior secondary curricula.
